

Please continue to prohibit cell phone use on airplanes. Airports have already become more unpleasant than bus stations because of the incessant cell phone chatter. If loudmouths are allowed to destroy the calm of airline flights I foresee each flight becoming a nightmare . I personally plan to quit flying commercially if this comes to pass.